

Waunakee
Rotary Club

Sept. 21, 2006
Vol. 39 No. 12

With the scheduled speaker having lost in The Sept. 12 primary, Waunakee Rotary was without a speaker on Sept. 14. Larry and Ellen Felsheim offered tours of their palace-on-wheels. Rotarians who were heading for the golf outing didn't seem to mind the absence of a speaker.

President Drew Lawrence urged Rotarians to support the Rustic Road Rally. Ray Statz reminded members that you don't have to be a Rotarian to participate.

Ray also reported that work on the bridge is progressing. The DNR offered some last-minute thoughts on how the project should be done.

Phil Willems reminded club members that the Rotary Lights subcommittee meets at 7:30 p.m. every Monday at Rex's Innkeeper.

A sign-up sheet circulated for Oktoberfest.

The following Rotarians need to have their photos taken for the club directory. Please call Mike Fehrenbach, 849-7729, to schedule a time:

Possibly true facts from the Internet:

- On Father's Day, there are more collect calls than any other day.

- In Shakespeare's day, mattresses were secured on bed frames by ropes. When you pulled on the ropes, the mattress tightened, making the bed firmer to sleep on. Hence, the phrase, "Good night, sleep tight."

- In Babylon, 4,000 years ago, it was the practice that a bride's father would supply his new son-in-law with all the mead – honey beer – that he could drink. This period, based on a lunar calendar, was called the honey month. Today, we know it as the honeymoon.
